Director's Meeting

Tuesday, 13 November 1951

25X1

Mr. Dulles said that there had been some question of Col. [redacted] as our Senior Representative in [redacted]. He has been interviewed by both Gen. Wyman and Col. Johnston. Mr. Wisner will follow this up.

25X1

Mr. Wisner will call Mr. Bissel and get his reactions in regard to [redacted] as an economist.

Mr. Dulles discussed Let Freedom Ring. He has told Mr. Barrett that it is not our business to exercise censorship over State Department publications. Mr. Wisner will look at the mock-up of Let Freedom Ring and give Mr. Dulles his comments. In the meantime, however, Mr. Wolf will tell Harrison that we cannot comment on such a State Department publication.

Mr. Wolf asked that Col. Edwards be kept closely in touch with developments in the [redacted] integration plan. In regard to integration, Mr. Dulles stated that Gen. Wyman feels strongly that operations should be subordinated to intelligence.

Mr. Wolf has set up a meeting with Mr. Dulles and Mr. Wisner for tomorrow morning to go over a summary of the proposed 1953 budget.

Mr. Wisner asked about Gen. [redacted] proposed trip. Mr. Dulles feels that he and Mr. Wisner should discuss this with the DCI immediately.

Mr. Wisner reported that he is seeing [redacted] tomorrow and will try to persuade him to come into CIA.

Mr. Wisner reminded Mr. Dulles that Gen. [redacted] is going on a trip at the end of this week. He feels that it is a very good idea and will immeasurably improve the morale of Commo personnel in the field. Mr. [redacted] stated that he did not believe the DCI knew of this trip and Mr. Dulles will mention it tomorrow morning.
